Fire Woman and Water Man

In a world full of differences
Lies a girl with an inner flame
She is pure fire that shines like a star
But in her heart, she only feels loneliness

She lives in a world of different elements
Each one is different in their own way
Cuz there is incompatibility between all of them
And that's why sadness can be seen in her eyes

Everything changes when a handsome young man
Makes his entrance, showing himself willing
For many, he is transparent as glass
But through him, she sees his inside

A young man who looks attractive
But tears don't stop flowing from his eyes
That's because he is found alone
And only sadness accompanies him

She pays her attention to him
And comforts him without shyness
Later she discovers that inside the young man
There is a sensitive heart that they do not see

She looks into his eyes, wiping away his tears
She knows that he is a water man
He looks at her, admiring her kindness
And notice the fire behind her stare

Both are different and it can tell
Cuz she is fire and he is water
But something inside them starts to wake up
Cuz they both realize they're lonely souls

After the meeting, they depart hand in hand
They take advantage of the moment to get to know each other better
They chat and laugh while killing time
They gladden their hearts, leaving the spirit happy

The night finally falls and the moon shines
But the city light stays on
Through the streets walks the young couple
Holding hands with joy in the soul

They hold each other's hands with a deep look
Making it clear that it is not a simple friendship
The girl laughs with a lightened face
While the boy admires her with his tender gaze

The connection between the two of them can no longer be broken
And then they both join in a tender embrace
They look each other into their eyes, and they no longer feel alone
And they seal their union with a tender kiss

He embraces her, feeling a warm passion
Inside her, a lustful desire ignites
The young man feels in his lover her fire of love
But his wet sweat relaxes the heat

She feels his wet body, and she won't let him go
Cuz the water of that man soothes her soul
The woman's body seemed to burn
But she was already his beloved one, and he was not going to let her go

He can't do anything except give himself up to the heat
Cuz she is burning with pure eroticism
He can only caress her to the beat of the kiss
Waiting for his humidity to cool her body

She feels wet and all damp
Not only because the kiss that refreshes her mouth
The fire of her body does not stop screaming
And while the passion continues, the flames do not cease

Embraced together, they would not part
Cuz it's obvious that they love each other
She is pure fire and he is pure water
But that doesn't matter anymore because they can love each other

Flame of Pleasure

A fire is lit inside me
Every time I'm with you
Because while I am water
You, on the other hand, are fire

It can feel the heat
Emanating from your body
And what lights my love
It's your burning fire

You're dazzling and you don't stop shining
As if you were a beautiful star
Because you are my lady of flame
And only you are the one I want the most

That flame inside you
Gives me when being with you
And when feeling that tremendous heat
I can feel your love

You are hot like the sun
And you make me feel like it's summer
Just by feeling your touch
You make me emit smoke

Seeing your radiant eyes
I feel like I'm seeing diamonds
And it's more than enough
To become your lover

That look of yours is a gift
That shows me your love
And when I caress your face
Your cheek burns in my hand

When I kiss your lips
I feel how they become warm
And every time we touch
I feel how your heart burns

Hugging you feels comforting
And generates relief in my being
Cuz it's your burning flame
What satisfies me

I like to receive your hugs
And relish your tasty kisses
Feel that sweet touch
And start the act together

That the romantic setting
Awakes our lust
And an erotic feeling
Consumes us in flames

Let me light your fire
To unite it with mine
In a moment of passion
That let us become one

I'll let you taste my sweat
That emanates from my body
And let your fire
Make me feel the heat

While I boil with passion
My water satisfies your libido
And a smoke of satisfaction
Emanates from your body

Unite your fire with my water
Is a blessed experience
That envelops our souls
In a smoky heavenly cloud

In it I can see you
Illuminating and resplendent
You are a flame of pleasure
And you make me feel good

Tears of Love

While my body is hot
Your body is so wet
What's in me is fire
But what's in you is pure

A purity made of water
Which is clear as crystal
Its transparency reveals your soul
Which is impeccable and clean

My soul burns on fire
When being from an infernal fire
And the only thing it needs
Is from your fresh water

That water that I want to drink
To calm my burning fire
When I open my steaming mouth
I give you permission to kiss me

Taste those wet lips
With my burning lips
Allow them to hug
With all our love

Feel that oral cavity
While I drink your saliva
And the smoke from my mouth
Goes entering yours

I want to hold on to you
And I won't let you go
Cuz having you next to me
Makes me want to live

I enjoy this life
Knowing that you love me
That lights up my soul
Like a living flame

Makes me shine and glow
Like a candle in the dark
And that light of my internal flame
Is seen reflected in your water

Like a sweet firefly
That goes by a waterfall
Illuminating with her flashlight
The water stream path

My heart shines like her
Just like my eyes
When they look at your face
That's shiny and wet

When I place my hand on it
I feel it refreshing
And I know well that by possessing you
I can quench my thirst

I can see in your eyes
How much you love me
Cuz it's visible in it
What my eyes find

Your feeling is sincere
Because of your expressive way
Well it's sweet and tender
Your way of showing it

You don't need to give me anything
That it's made of material
Your sensitivity shows it
That is expressed with a tear

What emerges from your eyes
It's proof of your affection
That also sobs mine
Because they are tears of love

The Kiss of Two Opposites

No matter how different they are
That doesn't stop them from expressing their love.
Since unlike many others
They know they belong to each other

They are very opposite in several ways
But deep inside they feel identical
Well while the rest is divided
They just want to be united

She burns just thinking about it
Cuz her heat is uncontrollable
And she just wants her beloved
To calm down her fire

He gets his eyes wet
Well without her, he is not calm
And her caresses of passion
Are what dry his eyes

Even though there are two elements
That seem incompatible and different
That does not prevent them from having contact
That can prove the opposite

They have no problem expressing it
In view of the whole world
Cuz they know that their love is pure
And it makes them feel unique

They are quite supportive of each other
When they feel like they're alone
That soothes the heart a lot
Making them appreciate each other

He doesn't hesitate for a second
In caressing those burning hands
She accepts with pleasure and pleasure
Touch those wet hands

When their eyes make contact
They see the soul through them
And a bright glow
That reflects a deep desire

They just want to have each other
And never ever be separated
Unite their bodies and be one
Through a tender hug

By embracing each other with sweet passion
They don't want to be unleashed
They just want to be together
In this unbreakable union

They complete their union with a kiss
That symbolizes their sacred pact
Once they join their lips
They don't want or wish to let them go

Feeling each other's breath
The kiss is filled with passion
Causing the humidity and heat
Produce steaming vapor

He tastes those warm lips
That burn like fire
She enjoys those wet lips
That stay fresh

That undeniable act of love
Produces ascending smoke
That when emerging from those lips
It mixes with the wind

In the air has been printed
This mixture of two breaths
That has been united by a kiss
Coming from two opposites

Burn Me

Burn me

Because you attract me

And I only have in mind

Be your swain

Burn me

Because you make my love bloom

May my lust awaken

And my soul lights up

Burn me

Well I am at your feet

You are my queen of fire

And your precedence drives me crazy

That you burn like cruel hell

And you set fire to the deep being

That lies within me

Burn me

Cuz you make me crazy

And my sweat emerges

When you touch my skin

Burn me

And light your fire on me teas

Spreading your burning flame

And may my moisture evaporate

Burn me

I can't stop wanting you

Like the wildfire

What I feel has no limit

Burn me

With your suffocating heat

And that your erotic being

Cook my sweet flesh

Burn me

With your burning passion

And let me caress you

While you burn with pleasure

Burn me

As if I were paper

And you when you turn me on

You leave me steaming

Burn me

Until I can't breathe

Well the fire of your being

Makes myself turning on

Burn me

Until you finally get tired

And may your fire go out

When I'm finally done

Burn me

Until your flame calms down

And you fall very suddenly

With exhaustion washing over you

Burn me

While you lie asleep

Well, just by hugging you

I still feel that fire burning

Burn me

And never leave me

Well I am yours forever

Permanently

Wet Me

Wet me

That my heart burns

And by looking so gallant

You just make me want you

Wet me

Well I can't help but fall in love

And your presence suddenly

Makes me feel hot

That my being is burning

And just by touching you

My heat manages to calm down

Wet me

Once you exhibit your body

And my eyes are lighting up

When seeing it shine

Wet me

When your body gets wet

With the sweat of your teas

And that manages to refresh me

By just hugging me

And it's just caress you

It feels exciting

Wet me

That I can't forget you

And when the flame lights

I only think about having you

Wet me

Making your sweat rain

And when it touches my skin

I feel it shudder

Wet me

That I don't stop burning

And I need you present

To ease my pleasure

Wet me

While you are caressing me

And I'm undressing you

Just by seeing you

Wet me

In the mouth when kissing me

While with your sweet touch

You are masturbating me

Wet me

With your desirable body

That I let it enter my being

While I scream with pleasure

Wet me

While my flames moan

And with the sweat of your skin

You make them quiet

Until I stops burning

And the smoke be all that remains

From my burning body

Wet me

Once surrendered to your mercy

While with your sweaty skin

You're cooling me down

Wet me

While you are hugging me

Cuz my blazing fire

Has already satisfied its hunger

Wet and Hot Passion

By staying side by side
A spark of passion is ignited
Awaken a deep feeling
That can be seen in their eyes

She lights up like a flame
Awakening a carnal desire
And she wants the one she loves
Falls prey to her flare

He feels how his sweet beloved
Glow and start to burn
Making his clear skin
Start soon moistening

He sweats and perspires from the heat
Letting the internal water flow
His wet body shines
Like the clear crystal

She with her burning hands
Caress that very moist skin
Feeling a cold freshness
Appeasing her flame

She caresses her beloved
And she hugs him with passion
And with her burning lips
She starts to drink the sweat

She savors with great pleasure
That nectar from his lover
Making her to turn on
And her senses to stimulate

It doesn't take him long to notice
That his beloved is aroused
Well, his body humidity
Has awakened her lust

He gladly receives
The heat of her burning body
That makes the heart behind his chest
Beat with great passion

He caresses her gently
Awakening a sexual desire
Making her burn more
In an erotic sensation

Letting herself go by the stimulus
Temptation invades her
She keeps kissing and hugging him
To satisfy her hungry libido

She is succumbed to pleasure
And her lover knows it very well
There's nothing she can do
Except satisfy her hunger

He kisses her and caresses her non-stop

Making his body sweat

She manages to feel satisfied

Once she feels wet

The wet body of her lover

Makes her feel relief

Cuz that burning fire

Has already found satisfaction

The lovers remain united

Keeping each other hugged

While there is some heat

In their wet bodies

After that experience

They join their lips and kiss

Well what they felt in their souls

Was deep infinite passion

Your Hot Body

You are a fiery beauty
And I sweat by just seeing you
You manage to set me on fire
Deep inside of me

Let me hold you in my arms
Since you are my queen of fire
I want to touch your hot body
And make me feel I'm burning

I only think about having you
And be able to kiss you and hug you
To unite our hearts
In a moment of pleasure

I see your beautiful eyes
That always shine like the sun
And I can see behind them
Your soul that shines in flash

They make me want you a lot
And at the same time possess you too
I just want to love you and kiss you
As long as I can hug you

Your heat melts my heart
And it burns me inside
When we touch
I feel like I'm melting

With each of my caresses
Your body reacts in flames
It makes our meeting in bed
An erotic experience

Making love with you
Makes me feel like I'm burning
And share my soul with you
Makes me feel blessed

You make me feel on fire
When we are in bed
And that heat that you cause me
Is something I've never felt before

That's why I want to be with you
And be clinging to your body
May you always sleep with me
And I be inside you for a while

Let my sweet water
Be the one that calms your flame
When you feel aroused
I will make you feel satisfied

If your mouth is thirsty
You can drink from mine
Cuz it's good for me
To feel your smoky breath

Kiss those lips of yours
Is something I can't resist
And caress your beautiful body
Is just like in a dream

You are a muse and a goddess
That captivates me in a divine way
With a great physical beauty
That would inspire an artist

Your beautiful well sculpted body
Is the masterpiece of a god
A great delight for my eyes
That makes them watery

It's impossible not to want you
I cannot stop loving you
Well your body is hot
And that drives me crazy

Your Wet Body

My tender and sweet beloved of mine
That you are sensitive and pure
Nothing else in this world
Manage to light my fire

You are pure as water
And transparent as glass
For that I manage to see your soul
Through your appearance

That body of water of yours
Is what I need most
Once I get warm
And my desire gets out of control

When I start to burn
It's when my thirst awakens
And you can only satiate it
With the pleasure you give me

What emanates from your skin
It's what my body demands
Because I burn with lust
And it can be extinguished with your water

I want you to kiss my lips
And wrap me with your arms
While I feel your fresh body
I drink your saliva

When I feel your tongue in my mouth
I exhale an oral vapor
Proving that my lust
Is already being attended

I want to feel your hands
Caressing my burning face
And let them run through my entire body
That burns like a fire

I let you gladly to put
Your wet fingers in my mouth
To drink their sweet moisture
As if they were lollipops

Your hands are all free
To explore my complete complexion
Well, the intense heat of my skin
Demands a dose of pleasure

With your very wet hands
You can caress my breasts
And run all over my hips
Making me feel aroused

You can kiss my body
Cuz my skin wants your kisses
And may those wet lips
Pleases my senses

Your hands can caress
Down below where my lust yells
Of course you can enter
Inside my crotch

I allow you to taste me
In any way imaginable
While I taste with delight
The water that flows from your skin

When I reach the last climax
I rest in your puddle of water
Well, by leaving me all wet
I feel quite satisfied

I hug you my sweet beloved
While you sleep with me
Cuz it's your wet body
What calms my fire

The Embrace of Lovers

United by what they feel
Regardless of whether they are different
It's what makes these lovers
Have a pretty strong bond

They ignore the rest of the world
Feeling like they're the only ones
And take advantage of that moment
To be side by side

A great feeling of harmony
Is what they feel in their souls
When they start hugging
Expressing how much they love each other

She receives with a lot of love
The affection that her loved one gives her
Cuz he is very sensitive and pure
Like water in a river

He feels the warmth of his beloved
That it reacts to just touching her
Cuz the passion inside her
Burns like the sun in the day

He receives that burning love
That comes from her heart
Making him feel warm
And sweat the skin of the body

She feels that humidity
From the skin that doesn't stop sweating
And she knows it's an answer
To the heat that her body emanates

She accepts without even hesitatio.
The water that flows from his beloved
Cuz her body is thirsty
And it needs to be hydrated

He sinks deep
In the flames of his lover
Being consumed with pleasure
For that passionate fire

She is bathed with pleasure
By that body water
That gives peace to her flame
And offers ecstasy to her soul

They are very different elements
Incompatible for the world
But they have a strong love
That forces them to be together

From that hug that they give each other
Their love intensifies more
It increases colossally
And it's impossible to stop

That union that they have
Is already impossible to break
Since their souls unite
And they become one

She increases her flare
Like a hellish fire
And he continues to produce water
That streams like a waterfall

From that hug full of love
A smoke of passion arises
That aromatizes in minutes
The environment around

The two lovers love each other
And for them it is important
Since that steaming hug
Is an undeniable proof

My Hot Lover

When I have you in my arms

I can feel your inner flame

When I feel the heat of your body

I start to bathe in sweat

That heat behind your complexion

It's what attracts me from your being

Making me want to desire you

And at the same time wanting to possess you

You are a radiant flame

That illuminates my life with light

You are different from the others

And that's what I like about you

You burn and shine like the sun

On a hot summer day

And that arousing heat

Is what makes my heart burn

You are my flaming angel

And a very radiant star

I can't stop adoring you

For being a delightful goddess

Every time it's hot

I think of your warm hugs

And in your burning body

Clinging tightly to mine

My wish is to be able to caress you
And with great passion kiss you
Make you burn with pleasure
When I taste all your skin

I want you to drink my water
That springs from my skin and my mouth
And let me bathe you with it
Making you feel wet

When you are burning
I will gladly ease your fire
It's good enough by just
Clinging you to my wet body

I know that flame in your being
Is pure uncontrollable lust
That's why you want to taste me
Because I can satisfy your thirst

I'll let you taste my sweat
If you feel it gives you satisfaction
The only thing I ask in return
Is that you give me your fire

It's that heat that you emanate so much
What sparks me
That one of pure sexual desire
That requires your flames

It's that burning ardor of yours
What provokes my desire
And creates an erotic atmosphere
That is for both of us

That makes me be with you
When we go to sleep
Because you offer pure ecstasy
When you taste my fresh elixir

You are my radiant sun
That illuminates me with joy
Hot days in summer
Are better when I am with you

That's what you provoke in my being
And I want to feel like this always
I ask you, my hot lover
That you let me burn with you

My Wet Lover

When I feel your wet lips
I can't hide what I feel
When you and I kiss
I can feel the heat of your breath

I can't hide my desires for you
I want you to always be with me
I cannot stop thinking about you
I wish to have your hands on me

When I think a lot about your face
A flame lights up in my heart
I feel my body bristle
Proving that I am pure fire

When I go to sleep
In my dreams I only see you
That awakes the flame in me
And makes me want you to be here

Feel your wet and warm embrace
And may your hands explore my body
Let them go over every inch
To awake in me an erotic desire

While I keep my eyes closed
I let myself immerse in my erotic fantasy
I let my hands explore me completely
Pretending those hands are yours

They go through my body
While I keep thinking about my boy
It shouldn't be a sin
Cuz I just let myself go by my instinct

I'm touching myself very madly
As if my own caresses were yours
Even with your absence
You manage to make me feel wet

When I hug your body that sweats
I start to feel myself wet
I feel seized by lust
And that turns me on like never before

That's why it makes me happy to hug you
Cause your love keeps me warm
I wish you were already present
To have you in the very depths of my being

I keep thinking about you, my love
While I continue masturbating
Even with the longing of your body
And the desire to have you with me

The heat in me starts to get out of control
And it needs your water to calm down
The ecstasy becomes uncontrollable
And only you can turn me off

I need your fresh water
To calm this internal flame
That burns like a forest on fire
And it makes me feel consumed

The pleasure is too much to contain
And without taking it anymore, in the end I come
Exhausted I start to emit smoke
While tired I catch my breath

Everything around me now lies burnt
Cuz my sexual fire has been released
When being satisfied, I can begin my rest
And start my journey to the world of dreams

Our love makes me feel hot
And that seriously drives me crazy
That's why I ask you, my wet lover
That you always be there to wet me

A Hot and Humid Day

When the sun shines in the sky
The atmosphere becomes hot
And once the wind blows
You can feel a warm touch

It's similar to tender caresses
Which he gets from his beloved
Well, the heat she offers
Manages to provide a hot day

It's like a summer for him
And by being with her he feels it
Cuz his beloved is hot
Like shining sun

For her it's always summer
Because of the fire within
But only he is the only one
Who offers her a change

All that water he carries
It's pure wet freshness
That she needs so much
To relieve her atmosphere

That water he offers
It's what she requires
To enjoy with pleasure
Whatever satisfies her thirst

She feels that aroma
Of what she wants so much
And it's what she needs
To refresh her day

He knows which her desire is
And he doesn't hesitate to offer it to her
Cuz there is something in her
That he longs for

While he gives his water
She gives him her flame
Making the couple
Sink into lust

She feels a lot of passion
Upon receiving that liquid
That stimulates her senses
Like an erotic dream

Then he lets himself suffocate
By that intimate flame
That makes him sweat
In a pleasant way

That bath she receives
Makes her aroused
And makes her body bristle
In a stimulating way

He feels how the fire
Coming from his darling
Consumes him completely
Covering him with heat

An erotic atmosphere
Consumes the couple
And they both let themselves go
By such experience

What happened was excellent
Because of how very special it was
What happened managed to make
The day be different

At the end of the day for the two of them
It wasn't just heat
It was a very hot day
But at the same time it was humid

Lady of Fire

From the dark gloom
Your look lights a flame
And there is a glow of passion
That is proclaimed in your name

You are my lady of fire
That dance in the dark night
And I see how your lips burn
Inviting me to kiss them

When I'm in your arms
An intense heat unfolds
And as we intertwine our bodies
We sail in burning passion

Your caresses are burning embers
That persist on my sensitive skin
In the intimate embrace that you offer
The erotic desire for pleasure attend

In the vast and empty silence
Your burning secrets whisper
The love you give me is fire
And it burns when we are together

Under the stars in the sky
We surrender to desire
My beautiful lady of fire
I enjoy your burning

The dark night sighs
And our romance contemplates
Our passion rises higher
In an advancing frenzy

Your eyes are bright sparks
That light a flame
That manifests itself on your skin
And I just want to claim it

Between the sighs that you give Sensual desire overflows
I kiss your lips that burn
And mine refresh them

In the swing of our dance
Your body on me surrenders
In the end, my sensual lover
In our love you melt

Your warm skin is bristled
In the touch that makes fall in love
Your desire is sexual fire
That burns in every dawn

In the arousing delivery
Your body is a bonfire
A burning carnal desire
From my eternal companion

In the following morning

Our ecstasy persists

Your body is hot

And it's insisted in love

Promises are whispering

In the heat of your embrace

My dear lady of fire

In your love I surrender

I wait in the half-light

May the desire be consumed

Our passion burns without stopping

Like a flame that does not fade away

Under the heavenly stars

My lady of fire shines

And during the eternal night

Her love for me blooms

Gentleman of Water

From the cloudy vapor
My aquatic gentleman arises
And I see in his oceanic gaze
An enigmatic romance

My gentleman of water
In the dance of the drops
Your charming presence
Is a flood of elegance

Your caresses are a dew
That makes my skin wet to the touch
And in your wet embrace
My desire is manifested

Between the waves of the encounter
Your lips explore mine
Seas of pleasure I feel
And in your mouth I taste them

Under the present placid moon
Your hands are soft rivers
Our bodies are exposed
And in the humidity they sink

Whispers of waterfalls
In the enchanted night
My gentleman of water
I immerse myself in your magic

The rain of desire falls
And in your skin it shines
Love is a current
Where the soul goes crazy

In the pool of serenity
The lustful ecstasy emanates
I surrender, gentleman of water
In your embrace that claims me

Between your transparent arms
Humidity is a delight
And in our dance of pleasure
Desire delights again

Between the waves of your being
My body surrenders to you
My dear aquatic lover
In our passion you melt

You feel the saline breeze
That my skin caresses
Desire is a wellspring
And I want to get wet in it

When I surrender to pleasure
Your body is an ocean
My dear wet lover
You are my eternal enamored

Before dawn

The drizzle doesn't stop

And our bodies come together

In the love that insists

I feel a great relief

In your wet embrace

Being yours is what I want

My sweet beloved of mine

When the dawn comes

Our desire is condensed

And it flows into our soul

Like a river that never stops

I will love forever and ever

My gentleman of water

And infinitely

Our love will grow

The Union of the Elements

In the universal firmament
Two opposite souls shine
She is fire that illuminates
And he is water that calms

In the dance of fortune
The burning fire falls in love
And from the sweet serene waters
A story is born that treasures

When their eyes meet
Spark and reflection meet
Their elements are combined
And they delve into love

She is a fire girl
With a burning love
And it overflows with passion
In the velvet river

He is a water boy
With a sensitivity
That very calmly
Wraps him up and tackles

In the emotional crucible
The fire burns and screams
With the sweetness of water
In its winter embrace

Their paths intertwined
Are like unified rivers
The fusion of their elements
Is a sustainable love

In the hurricane of emotions
The fire becomes peaceful
The rain of sublime love
In their two souls continues

That water boy
In the flames takes refuge
His darling fire girl
Into his wet being is sprayed

In the crucible of love
They both are transformed
Water and fire united
In a passionate bond

Under the deep storm
Of feelings that spring
The couple of fire and water
In their souls get combined

In the twilight of the past
The bright sun retreats
The moon of the future sighs
In the hearts of both of them

The burning fire girl
Immerse herself in the freshness
Then the water boy
In the ardor gets absorbed

In the perfect symbiosis
The union is consolidated
The elements in disparate
In their love they nest

Boy and girl end up together
Like molten elements
In the amalgamation of love
Their destinies are united

Then in the terminal epilogue
Of this intertwined story
Lovers of fire and water
Are embraced in a happy ending

Author's Note

I wrote the first poem right after watching the movie Elemental and it is because of the potential that the movie had to be a great romantic story that I decided to write something inspired by it. At first it was going to be just a poem for a future book of different poems, but after the good reception it has had, I have decided to write more poems with similar themes, focusing on romance and eroticism. Even though I promised I would never write another fan fiction because I only wanted to focus on writing original stories with original characters, I couldn't resist the desire to write poems about the love between Ember and Wabe. I didn't want to mention the names of the characters in the poems because I didn't want to make them seem like a fan fiction, but the reader could interpret it as being about them. The intention was to try to portray the love and passion that the characters have for each other.

At first this book was going to have 20 poems with the hope of reaching 100 pages, but the number was reduced to 16 to match the number of texts each poem has. Also, the poems were becoming very repetitive and I couldn't keep making more poems that were about the same thing without them looking the same. I even admit that I used ChatGPT to help me make the last 3 poems, which luckily are not very similar to the rest, but I corrected and modified them to keep my style of narrative present. Being my first book of poems, I couldn't complain that the book ended up being short like the previous ones. My only hope is that it has been a suitable book for couples who can identify with the poems written and that it also motivates readers to read my other stories.
